

Remember More Billable Hours – with an Email!

Your Hours

Automatic journal of your daily activities. Capture time you spend:

- working in document
- reading or writing e-mail message
- speaking on your office phone
- attending meetings (scheduled in Outlook)
- working with computer-based activities (Internet research, Excel, PowerPoint, etc.)
- working with your Blackberry, both e-mail and telephone activity,
- Scheduled meetings and appointments

Your Private Email

Get a daily, weekly or monthly report sent to your inbox. If you like, have it sent to your secretary!

- A memory jog to help remember that extra billable event
- Better information helps you get more information on the bill, improving realization and client value
- All without having to “dig” for the information – it comes right to you!

No Additional Work For You

After you sign up, there is no work for you – you will automatically start receiving an email the day after the time capture service is deployed to your workstation and blackberry! No popups, no clicks – just good information.

Capture More Billable Hours

Studies show that attorneys who receive Legal55 capture an additional six billable hours per month each – without requiring any more work!
